Constants in Context offers both of these elements. It is mission theology in historical perspective and/or a history of mission that is grounded theologically. The authors describe it as a systematic theology with mission at its core, and a church history shaped by the constant but always contextual Christian traditions.

The title tells what is different about this comprehensive history of mission and in-depth theology for contemporary mission. Constants in Context refers to what is regarded by the authors as necessarily unchanging in the many forms of Christian mission throughout history and, at the same time, as necessary recognition of the ever-changing world in which the gospel becomes rooted.

CONSTANTS

Covenant Theology is, therefore, a very Christocentric way of looking at Scripture because it sees the OT as the promise of Christ and the NT as the fulfillment in Christ. Some have accused Covenant Theology as teaching what is called "Replacement Theology" (i.e., the Church replaces Israel). This couldn't be further from the truth.
