Richard Holloway does not pull any punches in laying bare some of the problems religion had brought to the world but neither is he complacent about the triumph of secularism. In his clear and non technical style the author outlines the development of religions as they occurred in the timeline of history.

Book review: A Little History Of Religion by Richard Holloway

The tactics of Moses and the promises of Jesus are used to make the world a better place. Religion is no longer used as an opiate to dull the pain of injustice and inequality but as a stimulant to overcome it. That’s what keeps many people in the religion game.” ?
