Upon release, Presuppositional Apologetics was so popular that we completely sold out after just a few months. Now years later, the last great work of this giant of Christian philosophy is back in print. Bahnsen's magnum opus lays out the Biblical presuppositional method, provides rigorous Biblical proof, and defends the uniqueness of the method.

Presuppositional Apologetics: Stated and Defended by Greg ...

Dr. Greg L. Bahnsen (1948-1995) provided perhaps the clearest, most faithful, and most powerful advancement of Cornelius Van Til's presuppositional apologetics of anyone. This statement holds true both for Bahnsen's written scholarly work as well as his practical applications in both formal and informal debates and exchanges. Those knowledgeable of Van Til's "Copernican Revolution" in ...

According to editor Joel Mcdurmon, Presuppositional Apologetics: Stated and Defended "presents the systematic counterpart to Bahnsen's earlier publication" (viii). This present volume, however, is incomplete. Dr. Bahnsen intended a third part to his "magnum opus," which, due to his untimely death, he never finished.

God forbid that in seeking to defend the faith before others we should in that very act compromise it. The so-called "presuppositional" school of apologetics is concerned above all with answering this question. Among all the sources of divine revelation (including nature, history, human beings in God's image), Scripture plays a central role.
