Primeval Demon is a special kind of Boss in Demon's Souls. Bosses are special enemies that feature their own arena, a large and prominent health bar with its Primeval Demon indicated, a variety of unique moves and abilities, an ambient boss theme, and an Archstone that appears upon their death. Most bosses appear once the player passes through a fog gate nearby.

Go to a primeval demon, use your black stone, then you'll see two messages: "Invading" and then "Invading world as black phantom" or something. On that latter message you want to kill the primeval and loot it before you load into the other world, so ideally you'll want to kill the primeval in one or two strikes and mash X to pick up the colorless demon soul.

The Primeval Demons are so lame. I got 5 yesterday and am now just 1 short for my (current) upgrade needs. In other news I seem to have lost my US PS3 Demon's Souls, which is weird. I went out of my way to seek out additional versions TO that and have one of the original Asian / English copies handy. I don't know how I lost a damn game.
