Waltz (1979: 117) insists that if there is any 'distinctively political theory of international politics, balance of power is it' and in Theory of International Politics he attempts to formulate and clarify the basis for such a theory. He recognizes, of course, that there is no agreed statement of the theory, and that even the meaning of the balance of power is the source of endless disagreement.

As mentioned above, neorealism is a reformulation of classical realism. Its key proponent is Kenneth Waltz, who outlined it in his book titled 'Theory of International Politics' published in 1979 (Baldwin, 1993). For the last decade, the neorealist approach has gained popularity in the field of international relations.
